The Loyalty Leaders of Occupational Therapy plays a vital role in sustaining the USC Chan Division’s worldwide leadership in education, research, and community impact. Thanks to the leadership giving of members of the Loyalty Leaders of Occupational Therapy, the USC Chan Division is able to offer financial aid to deserving students, attract and retain first-rate faculty, and conduct groundbreaking research, year after year.

Leadership giving also provides greater financial stability to the USC Chan Division, which enables Associate Dean Florence Clark to plan for a more impactful tomorrow as we look toward the centennial anniversary of the occupational therapy profession. There is no better time than today to partner with USC and its visionaries, innovators, and scholars leading the profession into this new, and exciting era.

While an investment in the USC Chan Division of Occupational Science and Occupational Therapy offers a multitude of rewards, members of the Loyalty Leaders of Occupational Therapy receive a variety of exclusive benefits acknowledging their special relationship with the USC Chan Division and the University.

Support the USC Chan Division of Occupational Science and Occupational Therapy by joining the Loyalty Leaders of Occupational Therapy, the Division’s premier support group.
