Spring Symposium Wrap-Up

“As an OTA student, attending Spring Symposium really opened my eyes to the importance of becoming involved in our professional organization! I am proud to represent Santa Ana College as a student delegate and look forward to promoting OTAC and increasing OTA/COTA membership!”

-Lina Awshee, OTAS, Santa Ana College

CELEBRATE OT MONTH AT THESE EVENTS!

@USC

You are invited to this year’s International Forum on Saturday, April 12th from 9:30am–12:30pm! Join us at USC’s Center for Occupation and Lifestyle Redesign to learn about international practice and opportunities for involvement as a student or new practitioner. Breakfast and lunch provided! Contact Monica Stephen at mbstephe@usc.edu for more information.

Join us for the Be Well Wellness Fair at Pappas Quad on USC’s Health Sciences Campus at noon on April 16th! Enjoy offerings from food trucks and partake in activities like zumba, yoga, ballet, massages, and occupational therapy services geared at stress relief and lifestyle redesign.

@SANTA ANA COLLEGE

Students from the Santa Ana College SOTA Club will be at the Santa Ana Relay for Life event on April 12th. Come give your support as we promote OT, sell snacks, and raise funds in the fight against cancer!

Join the SAC SOTA Club as they walk in a fundraiser on April 27th at UCLA to raise funds for Elijah, a kindergartener receiving treatment for a congenital heart defect at Mattel Children’s Hospital!
