School-Based Occupational Therapy
with Los Angeles Unified School District (LAUSD)

We're looking for energetic School-Based Occupational Therapists!

- Competitive salary with Medical, dental & vision coverage for you and your family/dependents
- 10-month calendar
- Paid holidays
- Retirement with benefits (STRS)
- Initial training and orientation/mentorship
- Treatment equipment & rolling bag
- Lap-top computer
- Opportunities to treat and assess students with a variety of disabilities from 3-22 years old
- Provide treatment sessions in an environment infused with evidence based practice
- Opportunities to work in different settings and programs (ACES, therapy room, Autism classrooms)
- Access to Assistive Technology Lending Libraries for equipment trials with students
- District-sponsored continuing education/professional development
- Extensive “Clinic to Classroom” continuing education course
- Multi-level ongoing support from a variety of experienced therapists
- Unique mentoring opportunities from a large experienced staff
- New graduate and 2nd/3rd year ongoing support
- Opportunities for professional growth and leadership
- Work in a program which produces research studies/presentations for state and national conferences

If you are interested in employment with us, please contact:

Candy Bramley, PT, DPT
Email: candace.bramley@lausd.net
Phone: (213) 241-6200
Fax: (213) 241-8435

OR:

Craig Yokoi, Talent Acquisition Specialist
Human Resources -
Certificated Recruitment and Selection
Phone: (213) 241-2443
Fax: (213) 241-8412

To apply, please go to http://achieve.lausd.net/Page/4624 **